

The Art League of Long Island is looking for a fine art jewelry instructor with 3-5 years teaching experience in some or all phases of beginning, intermediate and advanced jewelry making. Preference is given to those with BA's and MFA's in the arts.

Required Skills:

- Ability to teach beginning metal work, soldering, polishing and finishing to new beginner students and those with some experience.
- Teach intermediate and advanced levels to include wax carving, stone setting, etc.
- Develop student skills and confidence in mastering the fine art of jewelry making that allows for creativity, individual design and a passion for the art.

Candidates should provide a portfolio including images of current work, website, cover letter, and CV to jobs@artleagueli.org

The Art League of Long Island, a not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) organization serving Long Islanders since 1955.