Lauren Brady-Russell Elected Secretary of the Art League of Long Island Board of Directors

The Art League of Long Island is pleased to announce Lauren Brady-Russell has been elected to the position of Board Secretary of its Board of Directors.

Lauren Brady-Russell is currently Department Coordinator and Adjunct Instructor of Interior Design at NY Institute of Technology and principal of LBR Design Collaborative, Ltd. In her role at LBR Design Collective, Brady-Russell designs gathering spaces that enhance the human experience, whether it be multi-family dwellings, retirement facilities, public spaces, lobbies, corridors, corporate environments, restaurants, and high-end residences. In addition to managing LBR Design Collaborative, Brady-Russell belongs to NEWH, Network of Executive Women in Hospitality; IIDA, Associate Member of International Interior Design Association; and IDEC, Associate Member of Interior Design Educators Council. Her designs have received awards by industry organizations such as the Long Island Builders Institute and the National Association of Home Builders.

The Art League of Long Island, located in Dix Hills, is a not-for-profit visual arts organization that offers classes and workshops for children and adults, from beginner to advanced levels. Their art gallery hosts a dozen exhibits per year, featuring contemporary works by many local artists. For information about classes, exhibits, and events call (631) 462-5400 or visit www.artleagueli.org.
