ART SCHOLARSHIP FOR COMBAT VETERANS

SPONSORED BY SALENGER, SACK, KIMMEL & BAVARO

Woodbury-based law firm Salenger, Sack, Kimmel & Bavaro, LLP has generously established the Lt. Colonel Joseph J. Fenty Jr., Memorial Scholarship for returning combat veterans to receive a formal art education at the Art League of Long Island.

Returning combat veterans, currently residing or originally from Long Island, are invited to apply for the scholarship, two of whom will be selected to receive a scholarship. Veterans can nominate themselves or have someone nominate them.

Nominations can be made by downloading an entry form from <http://sskblaw.com/about-us/charities/fentyscholarship/> or send an email to: Fentyscholarship@salsack.com

Entries will be accepted from November 11 through December 11

Lt. Colonel Joseph J. Fenty, Jr., was a patriot who gave his life for his country. As an Airborne Ranger & Commander of 3rd Squadron, 71st Cavalry Regiment, 10th Mountain Division, Lt. Colonel Fenty was a brother and mentor to the soldiers he commanded. On May 5, 2006, he and nine soldiers were killed while serving in the Kunar province in Afghanistan when a CH-47 Chinook helicopter crashed during combat operations. In life, he was a loving husband and son who hailed from Long Island. After earning a degree in business management he was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant from UNCC Charlotte, and in the ensuing years he earned his masters in education from Troy State University. An elite athlete, he was a marathon-runner, an ultra-marathon runner, a cross-country skier, mountain biker, and kayaker. He also was a proud supporter of the arts and recognized how it nurtured the mind and the soul.
